NOTES

25X1

Cambodia - South Vietnam: (Both South Vietnam and Cambodia have expressed a desire to continue normal commercial and economic activities despite the break in their diplomatic relations on 27 August. According to the departing South Vietnamese representative, Saigon will not close the Mekong River-- Cambodia's primary international trade route--unless Prince Sihanouk takes further action, such as recognizing North Vietnam.)

Saudi Arabia: (The Saudi minister of defense in a conversation with the British ambassador threatened to consider purchasing arms from the Soviet bloc if they are not available from Western sources. Although this appears to be primarily a pressure tactic to secure British surface-to-air missiles, it could indicate that the Saudis are considering diplomatic relations with the Soviet Union. Jordan's agreement with the USSR on 21 August to establish such relations leaves Saudi Arabia the only Middle Eastern nation without diplomatic ties with Moscow.)
